

Inspera Exam Portal Security policy options

Security Policy	Assistive Technology Enabled	Lockdown Outcome	Monitoring Outcome
None	Ignored	No lockdown. No monitoring of prohibited processes.
Open	Ignored	No lockdown.	Monitoring processes are being logged: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Test taker moving away from lockdown browser. ● Prohibited processes are reported but not terminated. ● An external monitor is detected.
Moderate	Enabled	Tries strict OS lockdown first, but test taker is allowed to continue even if it fails (ie, even if prohibited processes cannot be closed). Test takers can use screen readers but they need to launch the screen reader before starting the test.	Monitoring processes are being logged: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The test taker moves away from the lockdown browser twice (they get a warning when it happens the first time) ● Any prohibited processes are detected (still being terminated if possible) ● Lockdown settings are tampered with ● An external monitor is detected
Moderate	Disabled	Tries strict OS lockdown first, but test taker is allowed to continue even if it fails (ie, even if prohibited processes cannot be closed).	Test taker exit requires an Invigilator password.
Strict	Ignored	If strict lockdown fails, the test session will terminate. If prohibited processes cannot be terminated, the test taker needs to close them in order to proceed.	Monitoring processes are being logged: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The test taker goes away from the lockdown browser. ● Any prohibited processes that are detected and not successfully terminated (still logged if terminated).

			<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lockdown settings are tampered with.• An external monitor is detected.• Any prohibited processes are detected.
--	--	--	--